

DRESS CODE

- Teaching is a profession and all staff members have a responsibility to dress in a professional manner.
- Clothes that could be worn to the beach or for sports are not deemed to be professional dress. Rubber jandals are not acceptable.
- Tailored shorts or culottes are acceptable as are dressy jeans, if worn with smart dressy shirts or tops.
- Sporting clothes can be worn for school sports events or physical education sessions
- Body tattoos should be covered.
- Senior Leaders will monitor dress code within their teams.

We must present good role models for pupils. This will promote acceptable dress sense for their future in society.
