Dear Parents/Caregivers

This is our last newsletter for the Term 2
We have certainly had unusual things happening this term but it is good to be back to programmes of teaching back at school.

Thank you parents to you all who have returned your children to school BUT WE HAVE 40 STUDENTS NOT YET RETURNED.

BACK TO SCHOOL TOMORROW

If your child has not been returned to school since the COVID lockdown they must come back TOMORROW – Tuesday or they will have to be removed from our School Roll.

If your child is absent for 20 or more days the Ministry of Education requires us to delete them from our Database.
This may result in prosecution.

ALL STUDENTS MUST BE AT SCHOOL TOMORROW TUESDAY
30th JUNE

END OF TERM

School closes for Term 2 on Friday 3rd July at 2pm.
We reopen on MONDAY 20 July at 8.30am.

GROOMING

I notice several students with unusual hair.
Our policy is for all students to have normal hair

- no dye
- no unusual cuts

Please do not allow your whanau to cut your child's hair unusually.

- Also several students have 'rings' in their ears (this is very dangerous and I have seen ripped ears from children's play). Our policy is for studs only.

TERM 3

We are getting a new lift installed for the Te Huringa Block and this will be a 3 month project with much disruption to our main school entry.

Please use the Tamworth Close gate for dropping off your children, if you can.

3 WAY CONFERENCE

Your child's teacher will this week send your appointment times for Week 2, Term 3 Wednesday 29 July.

CLASS PHOTOS

TERM 3 WEEK 1 TUESDAY 21 JULY

Have a safe break with your children.
Keep up good hygiene.
